A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains forward looking statements. These statements primarily relate to assessments of future economic and market conditions. Such information has been included to assist readers with assessing recent developments in the Fund's operating climate and possible future developments that may affect Fund performance. All forward looking statements are based on management's current beliefs and assumptions which are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties. Statements with respect to future economic and market conditions are based on management's beliefs and assumptions with respect to a range of factors, including market conditions generally and within the sectors in which the Fund's investments operate. While management considers such beliefs and assumptions to be reasonable based on information currently available to it, no assurance can be given that such beliefs and assumptions will prove to be correct. As a result, these forward looking statements would typically include words such as "anticipates, believes, intended or estimated". Events or circumstances may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward looking statements as a result of numerous known and unknown risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those associated with economic and market conditions, political stability and other risks identified in the Fund's prospectus. Most of these factors are beyond the control of the Fund and its Manager. Neither the Fund nor its Manager assumes any obligation to update any of the forward looking statements made in this report.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

As at June 30, 2017, the Fund's total NAV was $2,156,328, a decrease of 13.64% since the prior year end (December 2016: $2,496,903). The change is primarily due to net redemptions of $340,574.

Over the past six months, the Fund's Class A units gained 0.14%. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses. See the Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratios and the Past Performance section for the returns of any other classes, which may vary because of differences in management fees and expenses.

The Bank of Canada held two monetary policy meetings during the first half of 2017. During this period, the overnight rate was held steady at 0.50%. Although the overall Canadian labour market and business confidence improved, significant slack in the economy prevented The Bank of Canada from increasing interest rates. Globally, central banks held interest rates steady with the only exception being the U.S. Federal Reserve raising rates by 0.25% in March.

The Fund's sector weightings were reviewed during the period to address subscription levels and asset weightings kept fairly unchanged except accommodating cash inflows and outflows from the Fund. The Fund's strategy has been fairly consistent throughout the first half of the year and maximized yield by investing primarily in corporate notes, banker's acceptances, treasury bills, and other commercial paper issued by high quality corporate entities.

Recent Developments

With the Canadian economy being on the road to recovery, pressure is mounting on the Bank of Canada to change its accommodative stance and embark on a tightening process. With the U.S. economy continuing to grow, this is having a spillover effect in Canada as witnessed by an increase in Canadian yields as well as overall stronger economic data. We anticipate the Bank of Canada to begin a tightening process sometime during the second half of 2017.

Notes:

⁽²⁾ Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

⁽³⁾ The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net assets during the period.

⁽⁴⁾ The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio adviser manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a Fund's portfolio turnover rate in a year, the greater the trading costs payable by the Fund in the year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a Fund.

⁽⁵⁾ Waivers and absorption of certain expenses associated with the Fund are at the Manager's discretion and may be terminated at any time.

*The financial information is for the six-month period ending June 30, 2017.

Class A units were first issued on August 10, 1987.

Class F units were first issued on March 3, 2015.

Management Fees

The Management fees for each applicable class are calculated daily and are based on the Fund's ending total NAV per class; cumulative daily totals are then paid on a weekly basis. The Manager uses these management fees to pay sales and trailing commissions to registered dealers on the distribution of the Fund units, as well as for the general investment management expenses.

	Maximum Annual Management Fee Rate (%)	As a percentage of Management fees
		Sales & Trailer Commissions (%)	Investment Advisory and Portfolio Management Services (%)
Class A Units	0.50%	28.54%	71.46%
Class F Units	0.20%	0.00%	100.00%

Past Performance

The performance information shown assumes that all distributions made by the Fund in the years shown were reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. The performance information does not take into account sales, redemptions, distributions or other optional charges that would have reduced returns or performance. How the Fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future. Performance differences between classes of units are mainly attributable to management fees charged to each class.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar chart shows the Fund's annual Class A units performance for each of the years shown, and illustrates how the Fund's performance has changed from year to year.
